

Sociology Learning Journey

Final Exam

Power and authority

Key study - Murray

Power relationships

Key study- Walby

Patriarchy

Key study- Weber

Key study- Townsend

Relative deprivation

Life chances

Key study- Davis and Moore

Socio-economic class

Social stratification

Functionalist theory of social stratification

Key study- Marx and Weber

Key study- Devine

Poverty as a social issue

Data on crime

Key study- Carlen

Key study- Cohen

Social control

Crime and Deviance

Criminal and deviant behaviour

Key study- Heidensohn

Key study- Merton

Key study- Becker

YEAR 11

Key studies- Willmott and Young

Key studies- Delphy and Leonard

Key Studies- Parsons

Key Studies- Oakley

Key studies- Zaretsky

Mock exam on Families and Education

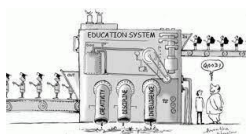

Educational achievement

Roles and function of education

Processes within schools

Education and capitalism

Divorce

Family diversity

Changing relationships within families

Criticisms of families

Conjugal role relationships

Research Methods

Functions of the Family

Types of data

YEAR 10

Qualitative and quantitative methods

Primary and secondary research

Primary socialisation

welcome

Sociology is the study of how society works. It is about structures, individuals, culture, power, status and life chances.