

Sociology

A level (AQA)

Final push!

A-LEVEL EXAMS
3 x 2 hour papers

Debates about values, subjectivity and objectivity

Writing precisely

Final stretch - Sociology teaches us to be critical thinkers and question societal norms

Retrieval and Exam Practice

Synoptic links

Education

Families

Media

Theories & Methods

Crime

Functionalist/Marxist and Feminist theories of stratification

Year 13 Summer

Old and New Media

Ethics and The Media

Media and Audiences

Globalisation and Popular Culture

Media (Paper 2)

Media Representations

Selection and Presentation of the News

Ownership and Control of the Media

Year 13 Spring

Labelling theory

Strain theory & Subcultural theories

Social control

State & Green crime

Moral panics

Crime and deviance (Paper 3)

Surveillance and the CJS

Globalisation and crime

Crime and the Media

White collar crime

Right realism v Left Realism

Year 13 Autumn

Punishment and victimology

Gender, ethnicity and social class

The Education Reform Act 1988
Marketisation and Parentocracy

Education and social policy. Exam Factories!

Hidden curriculum and subcultures

In school processes and relationships

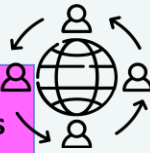

Education and social class, gender & ethnicity

Functionalism, Marxism, Feminism, Postmodernism, Social Action

Rational Choice Theory

Education in the UK (Paper 1)

Functionalist & Marxist approaches to education

Pro-education but anti-school

Meritocracy

Methods in Context - Researching education

Year 12 Summer

Disappearing childhood?

Childhood Toxic?

Childhood Is it better than ever?

Theories and Methods (Paper 1 & 3)

Families and Households (Paper 2)

Year 12 Spring

Demographics of UK Birth rates, Death rates, Migration

Marriage, divorce, co-habitation and diversity

Families and social Policies

Functionalist, Marxist, Feminist, Postmodernist

March of progress

The start of the journey – learning how sociology empowers us to create positive change

Year 12 Autumn

Domestic labour and the role of women

The Family and social change

Parsons, Zaretsky, Sharpe

Functions of the family

What is Sociology?

