

Year 13 Fine Art

	AUT1	AUT2	SPR1	SPR2	SUM1	SUM2
Topic:	Research and Development		Developing Skills and Project		Coursework and Exam
Knowledge Covered:	Students will continue to develop skills and techniques in a range of materials. They will work on their coursework projects. Students will work in paint, water colours, acrylic, poster and oils, they will encounter pencil, colour, felt, ink, etching, printing clay and sculpture. Students will visit galleries, museums and other artistic establishments to enhance their interests in the arts. Students will be shown how to research and explore different media to extract the information and skills they need for their development and their coursework		Students will start an exam project using these skills. The project, with minimal teacher guidance will be based on their own interests. With all art and design titles, it is just a starting point for students to explore and develop their own style. Students will start their exam in February. Starting points will be given and students will have to show all of their skills and manipulation techniques for this exam. The coursework for this exam will last around 12 weeks and then students would need to sit a 15-hour exam to produce a range of final pieces.		Students will be completing their exam and coursework. Students will look at a range of artistic techniques, art movements and concepts in order to develop their work. produce a personal final piece.
Online resources:	The Photographers Gallery website Victoria and Albert Museum website Tate Gallery websites					